In this article, we will explore the history of French dressing, key ingredients, a step-by-step recipe for making Fairview Farms French dressing, and tips for storing and using this delightful condiment.

The History of French Dressing

French dressing has a rich history that dates back to the early 20th century. Originally, it was a simple vinaigrette made from oil and vinegar. Over time, the recipe evolved to include a variety of ingredients, including sugar, mustard, and tomato products, which contributed to its distinct flavor and creamy texture. The popularity of French dressing soared in the 1950s and 1960s, becoming a staple in American households.

Today, the term "French dressing" can refer to different styles, but it is most commonly associated with a sweet and tangy dressing that is often orange in color. Fairview Farms has taken this classic recipe and added its unique twist, ensuring that it remains a favorite among families.

Key Ingredients in Fairview Farms French Dressing

To create the delicious flavor profile of Fairview Farms French dressing, you will need the following key ingredients:

- Vegetable oil: This forms the base of the dressing and provides a smooth texture.
- White vinegar: This ingredient adds acidity and balances the sweetness of the dressing.
- Tomato paste: A key component that gives the dressing its distinctive color and rich flavor.
- Sugar: This sweetens the dressing, enhancing its overall flavor.
- Onion powder: Adds a subtle depth of flavor.

- Garlic powder: Provides an aromatic quality that complements the other ingredients.
- Salt and pepper: Essential for seasoning the dressing to perfection.

How to Make Fairview Farms French Dressing

Making Fairview Farms French dressing at home is simple and requires only a few ingredients. Follow this step-by-step guide to create your own batch of delicious dressing:

Ingredients

To make approximately 1 cup of Fairview Farms French dressing, gather the following ingredients:

- $\frac{3}{4}$ cup vegetable oil
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup white vinegar
- 2 tablespoons tomato paste
- 2 tablespoons granulated sugar
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon onion powder
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon garlic powder
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt
- $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon black pepper

Instructions

1. Combine Ingredients: In a medium-sized bowl, combine the vegetable oil, white vinegar, tomato paste, and granulated sugar.
2. Add Seasonings: Sprinkle in the onion powder, garlic powder, salt, and black pepper.
3. Whisk Together: Using a whisk or a fork, mix all the ingredients together until fully combined. The dressing should become smooth and emulsified.

4. Taste and Adjust: Taste the dressing and adjust the seasoning if necessary. You can add more sugar for sweetness or more vinegar for acidity, depending on your preference.

5. Store: Pour the dressing into a clean, airtight container or a glass jar with a lid. Store it in the refrigerator for up to two weeks.
