This setting contrasts sharply with the tragic events that unfold, enhancing the emotional weight of the poem.

- Example: "In a kingdom by the sea" establishes a serene yet distant backdrop, highlighting the fairy-tale quality of the speaker's love story.

Auditory Imagery

Poe also uses auditory imagery to evoke emotions connected with love and loss. The sounds of the sea and the whispers of the wind serve as a backdrop to the narrative, creating a sense of longing and melancholy.

Similes

Similes enhance the emotional depth of the poem by drawing comparisons that resonate with the reader. The use of "like" or "as" makes these comparisons more relatable and vivid.
