Types of Quests

Flyff Universe features a variety of quests that cater to different player interests and skill levels. The main types of quests include:

- Main Quests: These quests are integral to the storyline and often require players to complete specific objectives that advance the plot. They typically offer significant rewards and are essential for unlocking further content.
- Side Quests: These quests offer additional experience and rewards but are not required to complete the main storyline. They can help players gather resources or improve their skills.

They often involve simpler tasks, such as collecting items or defeating a certain number of enemies. While they may not contribute directly to the main narrative, they are useful for leveling up and acquiring skills that can aid in main quests.

Players are encouraged to take on side quests whenever possible, as they often lead to hidden rewards and can provide insights into the game's lore.
