Fort Benning, located in Georgia, is one of the primary training locations for the U.S. Army, specifically for Infantry training. Understanding the schedule for graduation can help families plan their visits and celebrate the achievements of their loved ones. This article will delve into the graduation dates for 2022, the significance of these ceremonies, and tips for attending.

Overview of Fort Benning Basic Training

Fort Benning serves as the home of the U.S. Army Infantry School and is integral to the training of new soldiers. Basic Combat Training (BCT) at Fort Benning is designed to prepare recruits physically and mentally for the challenges of military life. The training consists of three phases:

1. Red Phase (Weeks 1-3): Focuses on basic soldiering skills, physical fitness, and discipline.
2. White Phase (Weeks 4-6): Concentrates on marksmanship, field training, and tactical skills.
3. Blue Phase (Weeks 7-10): Emphasizes advanced training, including leadership development and teamwork exercises.

Graduation typically occurs at the end of the Blue Phase, where recruits receive their hard-earned diplomas and are officially recognized as soldiers.
