Detailed Answers for Gramatica A Level 2 pp 95-99

Now, let's delve into the specific answers and explanations for the exercises found on these pages. This will not only help you understand the correct answers but also why they are correct.

Exercise 1: Verb Conjugation

In this section, students are asked to conjugate a series of verbs in different tenses. Here are the answers with explanations:

- Verb: Hablar (to speak)
- Present Simple: Yo hablo (I speak)
- Past Simple: Yo hablé (I spoke)
- Future Simple: Yo hablaré (I will speak)

- Verb: Comer (to eat)
- Present Simple: Yo como (I eat)
- Past Simple: Yo comí (I ate)
- Future Simple: Yo comeré (I will eat)

Understanding the conjugation patterns is crucial, as they differ between regular and irregular verbs. Regular verbs follow predictable patterns, while irregular verbs can have unique changes.

Exercise 2: Sentence Structure

This exercise focuses on identifying and creating simple and compound sentences. Here are examples of each:

- Simple Sentence:
 - "Ella corre todos los días." (She runs every day.)
- Compound Sentence:
 - "Ella corre todos los días, y él camina en el parque." (She runs every day, and he walks in the park.)

A compound sentence combines two independent clauses with a conjunction, while a simple sentence contains just one independent clause.

Exercise 3: Articles and Adjectives

In this exercise, students are instructed to fill in the blanks with appropriate articles and adjectives. Here are the answers:

- Definite Article:
 - "El libro" (the book), "La casa" (the house)
- Indefinite Article:
 - "Un libro" (a book), "Una casa" (a house)
- Adjectives:
 - "El libro rojo" (the red book), "La casa grande" (the big house)

Remember that articles must agree in gender and number with the nouns they modify. This is a common area where students make mistakes, so practice is key.

Common Mistakes and How to Avoid Them

As students progress through the material on pages 95 to 99, they often encounter some common pitfalls. Here are some mistakes to watch out for:

Misuse of Verb Tenses

- Mistake: Confusing the past and present tenses.
- Solution: Review the conjugation charts and practice switching between tenses to reinforce understanding.

Incorrect Article Usage

- Mistake: Using the wrong article with a noun.
- Solution: Always check the noun's gender and number before selecting the article.

Sentence Fragmentation

- Mistake: Creating incomplete sentences.
- Solution: Ensure every sentence has at least a subject and a verb, and convey a complete thought.
