IBLP Oklahoma City Training Center is a pivotal institution for individuals seeking to deepen their understanding of biblical principles and apply them to their everyday lives. Located in Oklahoma City, this training center is part of the Institute in Basic Life Principles (IBLP), which aims to equip individuals with the tools necessary for personal and spiritual growth. The center offers a variety of programs and resources designed to cultivate character, enhance leadership skills, and foster a community rooted in Christian values.

Overview of IBLP

The Institute in Basic Life Principles was founded by Bill Gothard in the 1960s. Over the decades, it has evolved to provide various educational resources, seminars, and training programs. The mission of IBLP is to provide practical applications of biblical principles in every aspect of life. The Oklahoma City Training Center is one of several locations where individuals can engage in comprehensive training that aligns with IBLP's mission.

Core Principles of IBLP

IBLP is built upon several core principles that guide its teachings and programs. Understanding these principles is crucial for anyone interested in the training offered at the Oklahoma City Training Center:

1. Authority: Recognizing and submitting to the authority structures established by God.
2. Responsibility: Emphasizing personal responsibility in decision-making and relationships.
3. Biblical Wisdom: Applying biblical teachings to everyday life situations.
4. Character Development: Fostering a strong moral foundation through character-building exercises.
